Crosses & Flags to Honor Veterans

American Legion Post 291 put out crosses and flags for the first of their semi-annual deployment recognizing Memorial Day here in the Hatch.

Legionnaires installed approximately 450 crosses and flags to show honor and respect for all our service members, both live and deceased, who have served in all our armed forces. They also put out approximately 300 small flags at all cemeteries around the Hatch.

The crosses represent veterans with their branch of service and names. They are all identical to the next one with one exception. The ones with the black ribbon around the top represent a deceased veteran.

When you drive down 1st avenue and see all those crosses with Old Glory proudly waving, take a brief moment and think about what this display of Americanism really means to each and every one of us.

This is an American Legion Auxiliary project and will be available again after Labor Day for a $25 donation for storage and upkeep at the Post. It is definitely not a fundraiser but rather a veteran serving veterans project. Crosses are on display for 2 weeks.
